

Examples of documents explaining in detail the “unavoidable circumstances”

Below are examples of documents explaining in detail the “unavoidable circumstances” mentioned in the Application for Publication of Abridged Version of Thesis.

“Unavoidable circumstances” preventing publication of the full thesis over the Internet	Examples of explanatory documents
1. The thesis contains three-dimensional shapes or other contents incapable of being publicized through the Internet.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed
2. The thesis contains a chart or other copyrighted work created by another individual who has not yet given consent to the publication of the thesis over the Internet.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed
3. The whole or part of the thesis is a work of joint authorship, which publication has not yet been approved by all the relevant co-authors.	Photocopy of a letter of consent and acceptance
4. The thesis contains certain data or information that should not be made public for the purpose of protecting the personal information of an examinee or observation subject.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed
5. The whole or part of the thesis has already been published in a scholarly journal, etc. and its publication through the Internet is not authorized under an agreement with the publisher.	Photocopy of the relevant agreement or other equivalent document
6. The whole or part of the thesis has already been published in the form of a book, etc., and its publication through the Internet is not authorized under an agreement with the publisher.	Photocopy of the relevant agreement or other equivalent document
7. A certain book publishing agreement has already been concluded for the whole or part of the thesis, under which its publication through the Internet is not authorized.	Photocopy of the relevant agreement or other equivalent document
8. The whole or part of the thesis is scheduled to be published in the form of a book or as part of a journal, etc. * Exemption from the duty of full-text publication due to a circumstance described in this item 8 is valid for a period not exceeding the length of time specified by the graduate school (subject to a maximum of five years from the date of the conferral of a Doctorate). After this period has elapsed, the full text of this thesis will automatically be publicized unless there are any other unavoidable circumstances.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed (Name of the book, journal, etc. to be included)
9. The thesis must be kept undisclosed for a certain period for the purpose of filing a patent application.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed
10. There are other particular reasons precluding publication of the thesis through the Internet.	Written statement identifying the parts of the thesis that cannot be disclosed